BY-LAWS

BY-LAWS IN FORCE AND AMENDED AS
AT DECEMBER, 1952

ARTICLE I. OF VESTRYMEN

SECTION 1. The Vestry shall consist of twelve persons who shall have the qualifications specified in Section 2 of this Article and shall have been chosen by a majority of those voting at the election and qualified to be voters under Section 3 hereof. Three of the persons so elected in 1952 shall hold office for four years, three for three years, three for two years and three for one year; the term of each individual to be determined by lot at the organization meeting following election. At the expiration of the term of each of these four classes, successors shall be elected, each for a term of four years.

SECTION 2. No person shall be eligible as a Vestryman unless he shall appear by the Parish Register (Art. VII, Sec. 1) to have been a communicant member of the mother Church of the Parish for at least one calendar year prior to election and shall further appear from the records of the Accounting Warden to have made a financial contribution to the mother Church during said year by way of pew rent, envelopes, or otherwise. After a Vestryman has served two successive terms of four years each he shall not be eligible for reelection for a period of ten months. This provision for temporary ineligibility shall not apply to a Vestryman whom the Rector intends to appoint as Rector's Warden and has so notified the Secretary of the Vestry in writing at least ten days prior to the election. Nor shall it apply to an Accounting Warden who at least ten days before an election has been made eligible for reelection by a two-thirds vote of those present at a duly constituted regular or special meeting of the Vestry.

SECTION 3. Those entitled to vote for Vestrymen shall have been communicant members of the mother Church of the Parish on the last day of the calendar year preceding the election, shall have made a financial contribution to the mother Church during said preceding calendar year, as shown by the records of the Accounting Warden, and in addition shall have attained on a date prior to the election the age of eighteen years. A list of all persons entitled to vote under the provisions of this section shall be posted by the Secretary in the Church building at least thirty days before the election. Note in placing this duty upon the Secretary the Vestry merely intended to charge the Secretary with the ministerial duty of posting the list thereby not interfering with the confidential records of Rector or Accounting Warden.

SECTION 4. Nominations for the office of Vestryman shall be made in writing to the Secretary of the Vestry, by any qualified voter, and the names of all candidates who are eligible under the by-laws and have indicated their willingness to serve if elected shall be posted publicly by him in the church building for a period of at least ten days before the date of the annual election on Easter Monday. Every Vestryman shall be considered to be renominated automatically unless ineligible for reelection under these by-laws or unless he shall have declined previously to serve if elected. Only those nominees whose names have been posted as above shall be deemed eligible for election.

SECTION 5. The time and place for the election of Vestrymen shall be announced to the congregation on the Sunday next preceding the date thereof, and the polls shall be open for a period of not less than one hour or more than eight hours, as determined by resolution of the Vestry.

SECTION 6. The election for Vestrymen shall be held every year on Easter Monday in the Church edifice or adjacent building. In case of failure to elect Vestrymen upon an Easter Monday, the election may be held at any subsequent date set by the Vestry, and upon a Sunday at least fifteen days prior to such deferred election, notice thereof shall be given to the congregation.

SECTION 7. The Vestry shall appoint, prior to any Parish Election, three qualified voters, not candidates for Vestrymen, to act as Judges of such election. It shall be the duty of the Judges at the close of the election to make a fair count of all votes cast and to announce publicly the result; and also, within twenty-four hours, to make a duly certified return thereof to the Rector and also to the Secretary of the Vestry, who shall immediately notify the members-elect of the result; post announcement thereof in the church building; and make a written report to the Vestry at its next subsequent meeting. In the event that the Vestry neglect to appoint Judges, it shall be the duty of the two Wardens to make such appointments, or else to act as Judges themselves.

SECTION 8. All elections shall be by ballot. Ballots received through the United States mail before the hour fixed for the close of the polls shall be accepted and counted by the Judges of Election.

SECTION 9. The Vestry shall have power to fill vacancies in its own body; and any person so chosen shall serve until the expiration of the term for which the person whose place he takes was elected originally.

ARTICLE II. OF MEETINGS OF THE VESTRY

SECTION 1. There shall be stated meetings of the Vestry upon the second Tuesday after Easter and upon the second Tuesday in the months of June, October and January.

SECTION 2. Five members shall normally constitute a quorum, but when a Rector is to be elected the presence of two-thirds of the Vestry shall be requisite. No person shall be elected Rector unless he receives the affirmative vote of at least eight Vestrymen.

SECTION 3. The Rector, or in his absence the Rector's Warden; or in the absence of both, the Accounting Warden, shall preside at all meetings of the Vestry.

SECTION 4. At the stated meeting on Easter Tuesday, the Rector shall appoint one of the Vestrymen as Rector's Warden; and the Vestry shall then proceed to nominate and elect by ballot, to serve for the ensuing year, an Accounting Warden, a Secretary, three (3) Lay Deputies and three (3) alternates to the Diocesan Convention. And the Rector shall then appoint the several Standing Committees of the Vestry as provided in Art. III, Sec. 1, of these By-Laws, to serve for the ensuing year.

SECTION 5. In case of a vacancy in the Rectorship at the time of the stated meeting on Easter Tuesday, the Vestry shall elect one of the number to serve as Rector's Warden pro tempore, and shall likewise elect the Standing Committees to serve for the ensuing year.

SECTION 6. The Vestry shall also, at the stated meeting in October, make necessary provision for the appointment and employment of the personnel requisite for the proper care and maintenance of the church premises, as well as the business affairs of the Parish.

SECTION 7. The Rector, or either of the two Wardens, or any five Vestrymen, may require the Secretary in writing to call a special meeting of the Vestry, due notice of which shall be mailed to each member, specifying the object of such meeting, at least 48 hours before the date and hour set; and no business other than that specified in the notice thereof shall be transacted at such meeting, except by unanimous consent of the members present.

SECTION 8. At all stated meetings of the Vestry the usual order of business shall be as follows:

1. Prayer.
2. Reading of Minutes.

4. Report of the Accounting Warden; and order taken thereon.

6. Unfinished Business.
7. New Business.

SECTION 2. No election of a Rector shall be valid unless the nomination shall have been made at a meeting of the Vestry held at least two weeks prior to the meeting for a ballot, the notices for the latter meeting having expressed the intention to proceed to an election.

SECTION 3. When a Rector shall have been thus duly elected, public notice thereof shall be given in the church upon the Sunday next succeeding the receipt of the acceptance of the Rector-elect.
